RUSSIA AND CIS DESK

Knight Frank's dedicated Russia and CIS team operates from our London headquarters and has more than 20 years' experience dealing with the Russian and CIS market.

Headed up by Elena Norton, the team works closely with Knight Frank's global network to source the very best residential properties from around the world.

Knight Frank's Russia and CIS team works alongside our network of 207 offices in 43 countries. This includes 63 UK offices that complete the London and Country Residential business and UK Commercial business, 42 European offices, 19 African offices, 42 offices in Asia Pacific and the Middle East, and 41 offices in America and Canada.

This coverage allows the Russia and CIS team to draw from real local knowledge and insight, so that they are uniquely positioned to command a truly global perspective on the world's property market. They are able to advise buyers on a full spectrum of property needs, from an historic chateau in South West France to a Tuscan Villa in Italy and from a manor house on the Swiss Riviera to an exquisite beach house in Grand Cayman.

The results speak for themselves. In the last four years the Russia and CIS department have sold to hundreds of Russian buyers and Knight Frank LLP continues to be the leading independent global residential and commercial property consultancy.

Knight Frank's property insight is underpinned by its unrivalled range of client services:
